From 2005 to 2015, Gross Domestic Product (GDP) at constant prices grew 20.93% and per capita increased by 12.30%.

By 2016, there were eight. By 2011, there was only one local patent, while pending has increased.

In 2016, most members of the National System of Researchers (SNI’s) were related to Sciences and Business, as well as Engineering and Manufacturing.

The manufacture sector continues to provide the largest number of jobs in the city. 2,626 manufacturing companies occupy 66.88% of the employees.

Exports in machinery exceed imports, this also occurred with electronics. Such subsectors, that are the most important in the economy. The subsectors specialized in transport vehicles has a low impact in exports.

There are 40,318 inhabitants in Ciudad Juárez, 0.80% (323 in January) belong to IMMEX, and there are 12.35% from the manufacture sector.

By 2016, approximately 6,643 students of this level are graduated.

Most students who graduated in 2014 were from Social and Business Sciences, as well as Engineering and Manufacturing.

From 2011 to 2014, the number of Juárez’s inventors with patents granted or pending has increased. By 2011, there was only one local patent, while by 2014 there were eight.